Description

This dataset contains information from the fourth survey of the collection of Swedish opinion surveys. Many of the questions are replications of questions asked in previous surveys, some of the questions are excluded and a number of questions are added. New questions in this survey dealt with: measures taken to counteract rise in prices; opinion on what causes the rise in prices; the three most important issues for the government elected in the fall of 1982 and which government would manage best to achieve this; opinion on how to decrease the budget deficit; the 1982 parliamentary election; government most competent to deal with the economic policy, fiscal policy, employment and foreign policy; opinion on the tax reform; important factors for being satisfied with one's housing; influence of different groups; TV commercials; cars, public transport and environment; fears and hopes for the political development; environmental pollution; violence; the importance of various school subjects; activities in the local area; contributions to peace in the world; Swedish national defence.
