Description

This survey forms part of the project 'Local government autonomy - local government boundaries'. Questions were asked about the assignment, opinion on the approaching amalgamation of municipalities and possible transmission of local government tasks to the State. Furthermore there were questions about the respondent's attitude towards an increase or decrease of local authority achievements in a number of areas and also the respondent's view on the attitudes of the electorate. The study was partly replicated in Local politicians 1979-1980 (SSD 0101).
