Description

Swedish people 1955 is the first part of the first large-scale survey in Sweden attempting to give an objective picture of interests, personalities, opinions, habits and living conditions in Sweden. The second part was made in 1970 (Swedish people 1970). The Swedish Opinion-studies (1979-1985) repeat some of the questions from these studies. Questions about opinions of human behaviour, interests, attitude to alcohol, religion, possessions, social benefits, voting, Swedish conditions, work and trade unions, studies, personal conditions, children's upbringing and education, parents, membership in different organizations and personal data.
