Description

The purpose of this survey is to see how theatre habits interplay with different leisure-time activities and other media habits. To investigate this the audience of three performances of the play 'Nicholas Nickleby' were asked to fill in a questionnaire handed over at the entrance. The questions dealt with paper reading; preferences of TV-programs; book reading habits; activities during the last 12 months; theatre visits during the last 12 months; theatres visited; theatrical form preferred. There were also a number of questions concerning the respondent's background.
